

Payment Policies & Recurring Billing Authorization

Stem for You LLC, doing business as STEM4U ("STEM4U," "we," "us," "our")
21690 Red Rum Dr #182, Ashburn, VA 20147

STEM4U programs are billed as monthly tuition through automatic payment. By enrolling, you agree to the following payment terms.

Monthly tuition & automatic payment

Tuition is billed monthly, in advance, and charged automatically to the payment method you keep on file (credit/debit card or bank account/ACH). You authorize STEM4U to charge that payment method for tuition and any applicable fees each month until you cancel in accordance with this policy. Enrollment continues month-to-month until you cancel.

Payment method on file

You agree to keep a valid, current payment method on file. If a payment method expires or is declined, you are responsible for updating it promptly. Monthly charges post on or about the 1st of each month.

Registration fee

A registration fee may apply. If it does, the amount is disclosed at the time of enrollment. STEM4U may adjust or waive the registration fee depending on the program or enrollment scenario. Any registration fee that is charged is non-refundable once paid, unless STEM4U states otherwise in writing.

Refunds & missed sessions

Tuition is non-refundable once the billing month has begun. We do not provide refunds or credits for missed classes, absences, or days a participant chooses not to attend. Make-up sessions, if any, are offered at STEM4U's discretion and are not guaranteed.

Cancellation / withdrawal

To cancel enrollment and stop future monthly charges, you must give written notice to contact@stem4u.com by the 25th of the month to stop billing for the following month. Notice received after the 25th takes effect the month after next. You remain responsible for the current month's tuition, and cancellation does not retroactively refund tuition already billed.

Late & failed payments

If a payment is declined or not received, a $25 returned-payment / late fee may apply, and participation may be paused until the balance is paid. Accounts more than 15 days past due may be withdrawn, and unpaid balances may be referred to collections.

Price changes

Tuition and fees are subject to change. We will provide advance notice of any change to your monthly tuition.

Program-specific fees

Certain programs, camps, competitions, materials, or events may carry additional fees, which will be disclosed at registration.

By signing below (or by accepting electronically at enrollment), I authorize STEM4U to charge my payment method on file for monthly tuition and applicable fees, and I agree to these Payment Policies.
